

Maggie Jones is a Landscape Ecologist and Director Emeritus of the Denison Pequotsepos Nature Center in Mystic. She has explored and researched Southern New England wildlife and habitats for over 40 years. Maggie will help us explore the tree, shrub and herb layers of woodland habitat in the Mile Creek Preserve and its importance to a variety of migrant birds, insects and other wildlife.